My dear Mirza,

I get Copies of the Delhi papers from H.H. the Maharaja of Orchha. I presume I should get copies when I hear from you.

I hope no inconvenience is caused by my absence when His Highness is in residence in Bangalore. I presume Her Highness the Maharani & party have returned from Madras. Her Highness wanted a teacher for the Govt. Orphans' daughters & we sent some names from the 24th February 1918..

My dear Mirza,

I send herewith D.O. letter No.1377 dated 21st - - February 1918 from the Hon'ble the Resident regarding a communication received from the Central Recruiting Board. I wish to invite your attention to the words underlined in pencil. I saw the Hon'ble Mr. Cobb on the 22nd instant and, in the course of conversation, drew his attention to the unusual language used in the letter.

I shall be obliged if you will kindly submit the - - Resident's letter for His Highness' kind perusal and return the same at your convenience.

Yours sincerely,
M. Visvesvaraya

seem to have made a selection yet.

I am trying to get through the visa formalities as fast as possible to be able to return by Saturday next.

Yours Sincerely,
